

Warranty

We Are Opening Doors sliding shutter products are covered by a comprehensive warranty against defects in the materials and/or workmanship for the period of two years following the installation date of the shutter(s).

This warranty does not cover defects which result from unfair wear and tear or abnormal use, the use of force, the modification of the product and inadequate operation and/or maintenance as per the provided operation and maintenance manuals.

In order to exercise your right please contact We Are Opening Doors with a copy of the respective purchase order and we will replace or repair the faulty part or cover the defective workmanship without charge.